

Online Relationship Safety: Evidence chart

This chart is not a legal document and does not contain legal advice, though it may be used to collect evidence to inform legal processes.

You may want to use this evidence chart to:

- Validate experiences and help see patterns of abuse for safety planning purposes
- Give support workers further insight so that they can assist
- Capture detailed and reliable evidence to help report abuse to an online platform or take legal action

Date (date it happened or date you collected the evidence)	What happened (give the location and as much detail as possible)	Evidence it happened (screenshots, reports, people you told, etc. Include where this evidence is stored or saved.)	Who you think did it (name, social media handle, etc.)	Evidence they did it (screenshots, notes, etc.)	Evidence still needed & who has it (witnesses, documents, etc.)
